Default SecurityFilterChain Config

- authorizeRequests() restricts access based on RequestMatcher implementations.

- authenticated() requires that all endpoints called be authenticated before proceeding in the filter chain.

- formLogin() calls the default FormLoginConfigurer class that loads the login page to authenticate via username-password and accordingly redirects to corresponding failure or success handlers.

- csrf() to cofigure the csrf protection